

RMSys

(Restaurant Management System)

Restaurant Management System (RMSys)

RMSys software developed citing problems faced by small restaurants and designed to maintain all business aspects; USP of RMSys is easy to use interface like single window entry for KOT and finalization of bills, which enable any user quick and smooth operation even on rush hours.

Features

- Single screen for entry of KOT and preparation of bill is provided.
- To handle rush hours very effectively without going back.
- User wise security keeps away the system data from unauthorized access.
- Flexibility to design own billing format provides personalized billing formats can be prepared.
- Plain paper stationary or pre-printed bill formats it supports all size of papers.
- Fast printing support for Dot-Matrix printers and yet looks good on Ink-Jet or Laser printers.
- All reports can be exported to various standard formats like PDF, RTF, MS-Excel, ODBC.
- Graphical presentation of reports provides easy and quick analysis of complete business.

Highlights

- Required reports are based on date, time and weekdays so that administrators can easily analysis peak and non-peak hours of restaurant, which is very helpful in planning resources.
- You can design a report and access information to meet user demands.
- Flexibility to change certain parameters like sales tax structure provides no additional up-gradation or service when government rules are changed.
- User wise security keeps away the system data from unauthorized access so that nobody can fiddle with data without permission of administrator, even deleted bills or part of bills can be tracked down by administrator.
- Every report is designed to be viewed in drill-down grid so that user can format the data of report according to the need of hour.
- Fast printing support for Dot-Matrix printers and yet looks good on Ink-Jet or Laser printers.
- You can deliver Information and reports to your users via email.

Benefits

- Secured access to users and selected privileges of report generation
- Filters Reporting on basis of columns/rows
- Reduced deployment costs
- Highly interactive and informative reports
- Enhanced productivity of users with , flexibility and effectiveness in building, deploying, updating and managing data integration infrastructure.

